Letter from the Editor

Being a KASANOVA is not so much in the thought, but it is in the way you move, the way you carry yourself, when you walk in the room and you feel a hundred eyes on you and you like it! But you don't need it. You gauge every situation and you have all the right answers, even if they're the wrong ones. There's no situation you can't handle. You've lived the stories most men only dream about and you've only just awoken for breakfast. You have a brunette beauty to your right and a blonde to your left and yet that doesn't dull your insatiable appetite for world conquest, you're not mean, you're not harsh but when your words are spoken, lesser men take heed for you have set the path for ordinary men to follow. A born leader, there is nothing you cannot do, sheer will and determination set you on a path that most would fear to tread, and that's what set's you apart. You don't care what others think, you act on instinct and that gut feeling others are scared to follow. You all ways sit at the head of the table... Not because you chose to but because it is yours. The world is your oyster and pearls of adventure and wisdom are at your fingertips. Being a KASANOVA is being over stated and understated at the same time. There is no need to tell everyone about your conquest's because they have already heard. When others falter, you stand fast and you are the light that leads the way. You do all of this by being yourself and that is what makes you a KASANOVA.

BRING YOUR A GAME!

TRY THESE SIMPLE
TIPS TO GET ANY WOMAN YOU
GAME OF SEX AND
TO PLAY TO WIN!

1: SEND HER FLOWERS: Every woman loves receiving a big, sweet bouquet of beautiful flowers at her home, or better yet, her office. She can show off to her friends and family that she's the object of your affection and it will make her feel truly special. Ask her what her favorite flowers are, and send those. That'll be an attention to detail that is priceless in her eyes.

2: BUY HER GIFTS: C'mon KASANOVA, every woman loves to be spoiled by the man she's with. It makes her feel special. She'll love that you think about her and want to make her happy by surprising her with sweet tokens of your affection. Gift ideas include jewelry, clothing, lingerie, chocolates, gift cards, and sweet hand written note cards.

3. TAKE HER AWAY: Whisking your dream girl away for a weekend getaway is the perfect way to win her heart. She'll revel in the out of her world experience and fall into your arms as her prince charming who gave it to her. I recommend a beach resort where you can lay poolside and soak up some sun. Vegas is always fun or Miami beach, Florida.

4: BE CONFIDENT, NOT COCKY: Believe it or not, cockiness is a cover up for insecurity. We all know this. It takes a real man to have sincere confidence; in yourself, in your emotional value, and in your ability to please a woman. So, remember to be cool, calm and collected with confidence. Cockiness will turn her off, for good.

5: PLEASE HER SEXUALLY: It's very important to not be a selfish lover. When you are bedding a woman, you need to keep her satisfaction in mind at all times. Take your time finding her trigger points. You can drive a woman crazy and make her fall in love with you or at least keep her coming back for more, just by being able to handle her body like no-one else ever has.

6: CUDDLE WITH HER: Most women are soft gentle creatures, so as a strong man you have to make an effort to connect with her softer side. After lovemaking or simply just watching a movie on the couch together, pull her into your arms, and hold her close to you. Run your fingers through her hair, kiss her softly, and hug her. This affection will melt her heart and make her want to open up to you in more ways than one.

7: TAKE INTEREST IN HER INTERESTS: This is a key to any successful relationship. Being supportive of each other's passions and dreams, is a great way to stay connected. Ask questions about what the other has going on, offer advice when asked for it has, and share new ideas with each other. Motivating and inspiring each other makes for a very successful union, whether short or long term.

8: SMELL GOOD: Every true gentleman has a sexy distinct scent that attracts women like bees to honey. Go to your local men's cologne counter and try different scents until you find the one that best represents you. Women can literally fall in love with the scent of a man and his unique cologne. Choose wisely.

9. BE LOYAL: Every good woman expects her man to be a man of his word, and honor their relationship by being faithful to her. Women love to know that they are the only woman in your life, and that they have every reason to trust you. A lasting relationship can only grow and strengthen bond with complete trust and honesty. So, if a great relationship with a beautiful woman is what you want, you better be willing to be good to her.

10. LOVE HER: This is a sure fire way to win on the game of love and sex. A woman will know you really love her when you treat her with respect and loyalty, you care about her feelings, and you spend most of your free time with her. Loving a woman means you have become a man who is emotionally secure with yourself and you know how to share your life, time, and heart with someone other than yourself. Falling in love with a woman can be the most rewarding experience a man can ever have.

KASANOVA'S 10 Summer SeXcapades

10 Sultry Summer SeXcapades: Exotic Places to have Sex...On a Boat, Hiking to a Secluded Beach, Pool Deep Pleasure, Starlight Delight...to name a few...

Something about summer makes us want to take it all off. Summer makes us sweaty, steamy, and ready to roll.

Keep your lady guessing with these tantalizing tips for the season of love. Make it hot like the weather or fun in the water. However you're having it,

- 1. Boat: Are you yachting this season? Pull the boat up to a secluded area and escort your woman to the edge of the boat. Lay down a towel or blanket. Make out with her for hours. If she's not hot and ready to go by then, ask her if you can perform oral sex on her. The power will overwhelm her and chances are, you'll end up on the up side of this boat. Extra tip: if you're rowing a dingy in the middle of a romantic pond, romance her down a foot or two. Sprawl out together and let your hands roam.
- 2. Hiking to a Secluded Beach: For the adventure enthusiasts, stock up on sex supplies next time you pack your hiking sack. Trail mix, plenty of water, and a nice lube will help you finish this hike right. Plan a hike to a remote beach- where clothing is optional. Find a shady tree or a rocky corner to lay her down in and make love.
- 3. Pool Deep Pleasure: Next time you're in the pool together, gently rub her back. Continue rubbing from her neck to her butt. Begin kissing the back of her neck. With you behind her, the arousal factor grows. Remind her how easily her bathing suit can slip off... or simply to slide one portion to the side and tempt her...

4. Starlight Delight: Out on an evening stroll? Lead her by the hand to a special place where the stars are a little brighter. Kiss from her hand to her shoulder. She'll understand the message. Expose her breasts and tell her how amazing they look in the moonlight. Kiss her stomach and become ravenous. See if the moon and mood strike her, too.

Try this: In the jacuzzi at night, bubble bubble... turn the lights off and pull her close to you. Let her feel your member and the rest will fall into place.

5. Reading Erotic Fiction: If there's a long road trip on the horizon, think about stopping by your local sex shop for an erotic fiction book or short story selection. Sound silly? Studies show that women relate to verbal communication more than any other type. Read to her and the panties will come off. Pull the car to the side of the road and put on the hazard lights for 20 minutes...or more...

6. "Cooking Dinner": Is it another hot summer evening, too hot to cook? Prop her up on the counter. Tell her you'd rather have her than dinner. Spread her legs apart and kiss her inner thighs. Insert yourself into her and kiss her deeply on the lips. Cradle her neck in your hands and tell her she's beautiful. After you two are exhausted, order take out. Tell her this trick is called "cooking dinner."

7. Winery Jaunt: Plan the next winery adventure with a "break time." Make sure you two are able to wonder off on your own. Get lost in the grape vines, chase her if you have to. Touch her butt cheeks, just where her legs and butt meet. This is a sensual spot for women and will get her excited. Sit down in the dirt, with the grapes and vines around you, and invite her to "ride on top." She won't be able to resist the "out of the box" approach. After, share a nice Pinot together back at the winery.

8. Picnic Escapade: Pack a nice lunch in an olden-style picnic container. Include sparkling water, chocolate, and honey. After snacking, ask her if she'd like dessert. Squeeze a little honey on your fingers and offer her a taste. Pour some on her fingers and suck them deeply. See if she's interested in moving onto the chocolate. Get creative, offer to eat it off of her including her chest, stomach, and legs. You're throbbing by now, so go for it, have her picnic and all.
A Man's Tip: Offer to clean her up with a napkin and a little sparkling water, she'll be impressed you thought that far ahead.

9. Bath Time: Need to get away from the heat? Ever jumped in the shower or run a cool bath to sud off all the sweat from the day? Invite your lady to join you. The body responds to hot just like it does cold- as exciting! Sexually, a cool water experience could really turn her on. Her nipples will become hard and the refreshing atmosphere could give her the energy to finish you off. Bonus Tip: Beg her to try oral on you in the shower, it's a quick and easy clean up. If you ask, she's more likely to try.

10. Summer Party: Next time you are at a friend's barbecue, ask if you can have her attention alone for a couple of minutes. Find a secluded corner behind the garage or rose bushes. Tell her you've been wanting her all night. Place her hand on your crotch and ask her to feel what she's been doing to you. The idea of tempting her will get the ball rolling. The excitement of getting caught will keep it rolling. Enjoy.

The key for any Kasanova is giving your lady all she wants. Once she's satisfied, your hot summer nights will continue year round.

PAGANI HUAYRA

KASANOVA brings to you this amazingly beautiful Italian supercar called the Huayra from the Italian automaker Pagani. The Huayra pronounced (Wai-Rah) is the successor to the Pagani Zonda which was an instant success when it first appeared. If the Zonda was Marilyn Monroe then undoubtedly the Huayra is Pamela Anderson.

Beautiful body with an extreme attitude that every man wants but few have been able to capture. This car is absolutely gorgeous in every aspect. It's beautifully sculpted bodylines which were studied over and over again in the wind tunnel to get the best aerodynamics and aesthetically pleasing package which took the Pagani 5 years to perfect.

It also has active aerodynamics built into the body, Four wings two up front and two in the rear adaptively control the aerodynamics on the go making sure the Huayra is shore footed through an corners you might throw at it. The day time running xenon led head lamps are seamlessly incorporated into the elliptical design of the car. The rear diffuser is also integrated into the body and of course the Huayra has the signature four exhausts sticking out the back.

Pagani developed an entirely new monocoque chassis made up of titanium-carbon there was extensive amount of research went into attaining the highest level of rigidity through the application of advanced technologies. The front and rear crash zones were developed to insure maximum occupancy safety in the event of an accident. It also has gull wing doors which set you apart from the rest of the supercars.

As soon as you close the gull wing doors the Huayra transports you to a new dimension that please and tantalize the senses. The interior is very futuristic with ample use of carbon fiber, fine Italian leather and aluminum.

All the controls are easily reachable as they should be in a car where you need to be focused on the task at hand. The instrument cluster is a beautiful arrangement of four aluminum dials that are able to relay important information with ease. They are also able to change colors from red yellow green and blue. The paddle shifters are mounted directly to the steering wheel so you never have to take your hands off the wheel. I really like the fact that the Huayra also has a regular gear shift lever in the center so you can still enjoy the way we all grew up driving cars with a stick shift.

The Huayra is powered by the Mercedes AMG twin turbo V-12 developed to Paganis specifications. Producing 700 Hp and creating an amazing 740 lbs of torque, all while meeting or surpassing all emissions tests, firmly planting the Huayra as the class leader amongst 12 cylinder supercars. The turbo's have been tuned to develop instant power over the rpm range to give the driver full control over the vehicle and eradicating the dreaded turbo lag. The top speed is well over 200mph and a zero to sixty times of 3.5 seconds is enough to get you anywhere you are going in a hurry. To get all the power to the ground Pagani opted for a transverse sequential seven speed gear box and a dual plate clutch, the weight of the overall gearbox is just 95kg. Pagani also had Pirreli develop the bespoke P Zero specifically for the Huayra, providing all the grip the Huayra needs to catapult you to top speeds in a blink of an eye and keep you in control of the vehicle at all times.

The Pagani Huayra with all of its beauty and power is an absolutely amazing supercar. Good looks and better performance this car company is going to be around for a very long time and I would love to be one of the lucky few that get to own one. Production is only going to be 10 a year until Pagani increases their production capabilities.

So put your order in and wait for one of the coolest supercars to come to your door. For more info go to www.pagani.com

ASK KASANOVA

GET TO THE NITTY GRITTY - ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS EVERY MAN WANTS TO KNOW

DEAR KASANOVA,

I HAVE BEEN DATING MY GIRLFRIEND FOR ABOUT 3 MONTHS NOW AND EVERYTHING IS GOING GREAT, SEX IS AMAZING, EXCEPT WE HAVE HAD MULTIPLE ARGUMENTS AND IT'S ONLY BEEN THREE MONTHS. WHAT SHOULD I DO?

SIGNED: FRUSTRATED IN LOVE

Dear Frustrated in Love,
The sex might be amazing but how does a life time of arguing sound? You have only been in the relationship 3 months and you're already fighting, that is definitely not a good sign. This is supposed to be the time where you are so infatuated with your new love interest that the both of you should be making concessions and trying to be on your best behavior. If it was me I would leave. There's too many fish in the sea to be dealing with fighting this early. That's my opinion.

DEAR KASANOVA,

I REALLY LIKE THIS WOMAN THAT I HAVE HAD MY EYE ON IN MY CLASS. I HAVE NEVER EVEN TALKED TO HER AND EVERY TIME I WANT TO OR SHE'S NEAR ME I CHOK UP AND GET ALL NERVOUS AND CAN'T SAY ANYTHING. I REALLY LIKE HER AND DON'T WANT TO MESS IT UP. HELP!

SIGNED: SHY GUY

Dear Shy Guy,

There is no reason to be scared or shy around someone that you have your eye on. One thing that I know is confidence is the key. You don't have to run up and tell her that you are madly in love with her but you do have to carry yourself with a certain amount of confidence. Women want to know you're a man not a pussy. After all how is she ever going to know that you like her if you don't even talk to Her, Strike up a casual conversation? If she's in your class ask her what she thought of the lecture or whatever the topic of the day was. Throw out a couple compliments and go from there. But above all remember just because you have the hot's for her doesn't mean she's into you. Good luck.

DEAR KASANOVA

I HAVE BEEN DATING THIS GIRL FOR SEVERAL MONTHS. WE STARTED DATING RIGHT AFTER HER BREAKUP; I WAS THERE WHEN SHE NEEDED ME. WE WENT FROM PHONE CALLS TO SLEEP OVER'S, THEN SHE WOULD PULL AWAY. I WOULD GIVE HER SPACE FOR A COUPLE DAYS THEN SHE WOULD CALL OR EMAIL. I ANSWERED HER CALLS, EMAILS AND WHEN I WOULD REACH TO HER SHE WOULD NOT RESPOND FOR DAYS AT A TIME. IS SHE NOT INTERESTED IN ME OR JUST PLAYING HARD TO GET?

Dear hard to get,

Unfortunately it sounds as if you were her rebound and were transformed into her safety blanket. You made her feel warm and loved. You were there when she needed you for support and comfort and to make herself feel good. Your feelings never came into the equation so. The next time she calls or emails do not answer or reply for at least 3-4 days and when you do tell her you were really busy and you forgot to get back to her. You have to change your pattern. She already knows you will be there any time for her, so if you want to change this and make her actually think you might not be there if she doesn't change her ways stop being a puppy dog that follows her around. You are a man with your own life and responsibilities and your time is valuable, if she doesn't respect that move on.

DEAR KASANOVA,

I MET THIS HOT GIRL AT A BAR, WE CAUGHT EACH OTHER'S EYE AND DANCED AND ENDING UP KISSING AND TALKING. IT WAS AN AWESOME NIGHT. PROBLEM IS, AT THE END OF THE NIGHT I DID NOT GET HER PHONE NUMBER. NOW, IT HAS BEEN A FEW WEEKS AND I HAVE NOT SEEN HER ANYWHERE I HAVE GONE. I FOUND HER PROFILE ON A SOCIAL NETWORKING SITE. SHOULD I REACH OUT TO HER OR HAVE I LOST MY CHANCE?

SIGNED: MISSED CHANCE

Dear Lost my chance,
Congratulations on having a great night and meeting someone that peaked your interest, Sounds like it was a fun a night. You should have gone for the number that night if you two were really connecting and having a good time with each other. Hope you learned your lesson from this one. As for finding her on a social networking site and hitting her up a few weeks later I don't see anything wrong with that as long as you don't come on to strong and just say hi and see where it goes. You might of lost your chance or she might have been thinking of you this whole time. Go with your gut and if it turns out good, Great! If not that's ok too. Good luck.

VEGAS: THE RIGHT WAY

In the '90's Time had an article stating that for the first time in history, more people visited casinos than went to watch Major League Baseball games. It appeared as if gambling had overtaken the top spot as America's favorite pastime. We witnessed a decade where Las Vegas tried to capitalize by transforming "Sin City" hotels and casinos into "family" destinations. Theme parks became the norm, but those didn't translate into profits and with the turn of the century "Sin City" began returning to its roots. The objective was for Las Vegas to return to its roots and become the "gambling and entertainment" capital of the world.

This seemed simple while the economy was booming and gaming tables were packed. With their new direction, Vegas casinos did an excellent job of providing the type of entertainment that kept tourists on property with great gaming, amazing shows and celebrity chef inspired restaurants.

The only problem facing the properties now was keeping the tourists busy during the late hours when visitors desired more nightlife. The new city slogan of "What Happens in Vegas, Stays in Vegas" enticed visitors to explore a newfound freedom to do what they wanted, when they wanted and not worry about the repercussions because nobody would find out.

The properties in Vegas always wanted to keep the tourists on site so they shunned the family vibe and built some of the most lavish night clubs right on their property. Always seeking ways to offer the best to their clients, it didn't take long for the hotels to allow professional nightclub management companies, Pure Management and The Light Group, to dominate the market. Now, the race was on for each hotel to provide the most extravagant night out without having to leave the property.

In recent years, the economy has taken its toll on the gaming revenues and the properties are leaning even harder on nightlife entertainment to satisfy current customers and lure new ones. This has made for even bigger and bolder nightclubs, but it's also made it much more expensive to enjoy a night out.

Leading the charge today is, what most agree, is the hottest and sexiest spot in Vegas at the moment - the Marquee Day/Night Club at The Cosmopolitan. The lines (multiple) are endless even while charging a $50 admission price for men and $20 for women on a Saturday night. Mixed drinks start at $18 and there's a two-bottle minimum for table service (4-6 people). Tables cost $2,000 on Saturday's and $3,000 on holidays.

In Las Vegas you must know your way around town now. More importantly you have to know how to overcome the "tourist" way of enjoying all that these nightclubs have to offer. No matter what, it's going to cost you some serious dough. Fortunately, I'm a professional sports bettor who has been here for over 15 yrs and has celebrated plenty of big wins at these spots. I'm going to pass along the best ways to take advantage of how things really work out here and let you in on some of the secrets to ensure a good time.

Remember in the movie Casino where Las Vegas was referred to as "kick-back city" and taking care of people will definitely put you on the right track? Today isn't so simple and you have to be very cautious about tipping because those days of folding up a c-note and slipping it to a doorman isn't the best move. Sure, tips are appreciated, but you have to know who to tip and how to do it. Today it's all about "who you know" at the clubs. I'm not talking about name-dropping, I'm talking about knowing who is in charge and what they can or can't do for you.

For starters, don't walk up to the doorman holding the velvet rope thinking you'll bypass the line by slipping him some cash. He's closely watched and doesn't want to be called out on by others in line that may witness an exchange. Instead, look for the gentleman wearing a suit and holding the clipboard because he's probably in charge of the guest list and can help get you inside.

You can get into the club with a few different options. If you want a table, simply inform the suit of the type of bottle you plan on purchasing, he will choose how good your table will be. Don't be shy to ask up front whether it's ok to give him a tip. That gesture will almost always bump you up a notch and it's the respectful way to go about it.

If possible it's best to actually plan ahead and reserve a table earlier in the day by calling the club. They will put you on the guest list and it will give you the best chance of getting into a packed club. This is especially important on the weekend, when it's most crowded.

It's no secret that on Friday and Saturday night you can't really go wrong regardless of the club you choose but during the week, make sure to do a little research to uncover the hot spot for that particular day. You will find that there's a different hot spot depending on the day. From "industry night" to "locals night", clubs are trying to get some business during the week by providing special theme nights.

What if you don't want to drop the money on a table? Don't worry, for you I have some tricks to help you do exactly that and better yet...for FREE. For starters, you can easily call most clubs up and ask to get on their guest lists. Although I have good enough contacts not to need to go this route, I did a simple experiment of calling some of the hottest clubs at the moment and had no problem at all getting on the list without it costing me a penny. That will allow you to bypass the long line by going up to the front and letting them know you are on the list.

Another way to get into the clubs is to look for club promoters inside the property the club is located. Many times this comes with a free drink or free admission. You will find a male, female, or both at just about every property that's walking around to hand out these passes. Again, this will waive the entry fee and line, and get you in for free. It really doesn't get much easier than that. You may also find these promoters walking around the strip trying to entice visitors to go to their club.

Lastly, if you gamble, then your best bet is to have your host set up the reservation. This will allow you charge the bill to your room or account at the hotel where the club is located. The clubs and hotels that allow this will possibly take the tab or part of it taken off. Too many tourists don't take advantage of the fact that gamblers are still taken care of in this city. Regardless of the amount of your play, be sure to get your gaming "rated" because you'll ultimately qualify for something.

While I'm talking about hosts there are also plenty of "VIP host" websites that will try to sell the "Vegas VIP Experience". They promise you won't have to wait in line and all that good stuff for a fee. My advice is that they aren't needed and that comes straight from an ex-host who preferred to remain anonymous. He informed that they simply do anything the clients can do for themselves without much effort. With a little time and the advice above you, can save you money.

There you have it, some of the best ways to enjoy all that the Vegas nightclubs have to offer. Whether you are a high roller or on a budget, the opportunity is definitely there for both to have a great night out, without having to even go outside.

Cayman S
BLACK EDITION

Porsche has come out with their latest black edition sports car the Cayman Black S. This is a special edition and only 500 of these beautiful cars will be available in the production run. The car has the good looks and the equipment upgrades that Cayman lovers have been waiting for. As the name suggests the car is totally blacked out from head to toe like all the other Black Edition models from Porsche and sports 19 in black alloys.

The Cayman S Black Edition just looks meaner and more aggressive just sitting there. The car makes you want to jump in and floor it with a total disregard for posted speed limits.

The exterior package also includes Bi-Xenon headlights with dynamic cornering lights and daytime Led running lights so people can see you coming in their rear view. The interior is also blacked out and comes with Black partial leather seats a sport designed black steering wheel. You have the option to make the dash board black as well (An obvious choice for the Black).

The door guards will be emblazoned with "BLACK EDITION" lettering made of stainless steel. Providing a nice focal element as you enter the cockpit, the gear lever/selector trim and the instrument dials are also all black. The glove box lid bears the special limited edition plaque. Standard options include a Premium sound package, Porsche Communication Management (PCM) as well as a navigation system and a universal audio interface (AUX, USB, iPod).

The Cayman S Black Edition is powered by a 3.4 L six-cylinder boxer engine with power output increased by 10 hp to a respectable 330 hp at 7400 rpm an increase of 200 rpm. The maximum torque stays unchanged at 370 nm with peak torque available at 4,750 rpm. The extra power aides the Cayman S Black to 0-60 times of 5.1 sec with the six speed manual transmission and 5.0 with the optional Porsche Doppelkupplungsgetriebe (PDK) transmission. With times of 4.8 sec 0-60 if you engage the launch control with the optional Sport Chrono package.

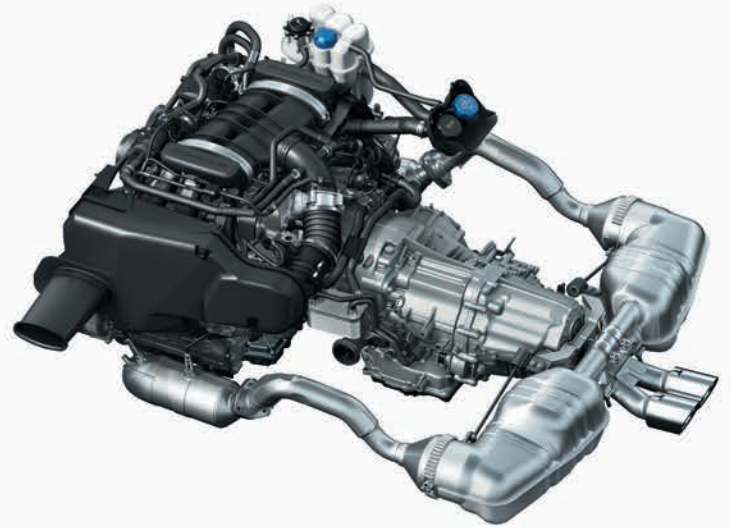

The Cayman S Black Edition's top speed is 173 mph with the six speed manual transmission and 172 mph with the PDK system. I think the PDK system is the best option because you gain 2/10 of second on the 0-60 time and only lose 1 mph on the top end.

The Cayman S Black is not just more sportily agile in terms of longitudinal dynamics but laterally as well. Noticeably better handling characteristics can be attributed to the Boxster Spyder 19in wheels in black. The 19 in wheels are taller and wider than the standard Cayman S wheels. The tire size is a 2235/35 ZR 19s on the front and 265/53 ZR 19 on the back.

This improves overall lateral grip to make you feel comfortable pushing the Cayman S Black through the corners at speed.

Pricing on the Cayman S Black Edition is set at $67,500 which went on sale in July 2011. With only 500 examples being built I am sure they will go fast. With the competition in the class of cars being the Audi TT and the base model Corvette.

I would go for the limited Edition Black Series with the added bonus being when you are out meeting KITTENZ you can always say you drive a Porsche.

WORLD'S MOST UNUSUAL HOTELS

SWEDEN'S FLOATING HOTEL

In October 2008, Sweden's first floating hotel opened alongside the famous restaurant "Salt & Sill". The hotel is a great meeting and conference venue with 46 beds, and is open all year round. At the hotel, guests can work and socialize in an inspiring environment, enjoy good food and drink, and then fall asleep to the sound of lapping waves. The staff members are professional and service-minded. Salt & Sill is a hotel and meeting place with a cozy, personal atmosphere, and a style characterized by modern Scandinavian simplicity.

SAND HOTEL IN UNITED KINGDOM

The world's first sand castle hotel has recently opened at Weymouth Beach in the seaside town of Dorset in the UK. The hotel was constructed from approximately 1000 tons of sand, built over 15sqm reaching a height of 4m. British sculptor, Mark Anderson was commissioned by Laterooms.com to create the hotel. For a mere 21USD a night, guests can enjoy sleeping on a sand bed, bask in the summer sun and listen to the tide. Now that's an unusual way to spend a night!

JUNGLE HOTEL IN MEXICO

Try this amazing jungle retreat near the fishing village of Yelapa in tropical Mexico. This rustic-modern aesthetic hotel with V-Houses was designed by Heinz Legler, who used to own a film set construction company and Veronique Lievre, previously a set decorator, from Paris. They started this project as their personal hideaway, and then became a hotel in a 5-acre area, with an infinity pool, spa, restaurants, yoga hut and 8 guest rooms. The panoramic open windows and expansive views are exceptional. You'll feel like you're truly on top of the world in any one of these suites.

ICE HOTEL IN CANADA

Before spending a night at the Hôtel de Glace, you will be invited to attend a briefing by our guides. They will be happy to walk you through the unique experience of sleeping in an ice hotel and will tell you everything you need to know about the equipment available. All of the beds have a solid ice base, with a wooden bedspring and mattress on top. When evening comes, a cozy arctic sleeping bag will be delivered to your room. The ambient bedroom temperature will remain between  $-3^{\circ}\text{C}$  and  $-5^{\circ}\text{C}$ , no matter the outside temperature. This experience is only available during winter months as it literally melts away during spring. So take your hot significant other and chill out in this cool hotel.

CAVE HOTEL IN TURKEY

Want a modern day cave man experience? Staying at the KELEBEK Hotel in Turkey will give it to you. Today Kelebek, which means butterfly in English, has 31 rooms, some of them in the fairy chimneys, some in caves and some of them in the traditional arched rooms. The rooms are divided into six categories: Standard Rooms, Deluxe Rooms, Junior Suites, Suites, King Suites and Presidential Suites. Suites have spacious cave bedrooms with hand-carved furnishings and locally-made fabrics, marble-walled bathrooms with their own basins, power-showers and bathtubs, and a lovely flower-filled garden with fairy chimneys behind it and the Pigeon Valley opening out in front of it. What more could you possibly wish for?
