Aphrodisiac Foods to get you in the Mood

A true Kasanova knows how to feed his ladies and himself to fuel the inner bodys desires for the ultimate release. Follow this guide of sensual foods guaranteed to set the mood and get you both ready for action, follow these easy steps. Seafood, fruit, and many natural foods can boost your sexual drive, performance, and ability- not to mention- pleasure-ability for you and HER. Eat up.

Steak: Strong like bull! Your dad knew best. Eat a good steak to stay strong. What he probably didn't mention was, in bed, you'll need this pure protein to keep your energy levels high' for her all night long. A good cut of steak is a great source of zinc, which boosts your libido. If you feel like this is the lady and this is the night- order a steak and let the cards fall where they will (in your bed, that is).

Shrimp: Known as the fruit of the sea, shrimp's succulent nature brings out sexuality in our appetites. Pure protein means extra energy for nightly jaunts and this seafood is versatile, as its excellent prepared hot or cold. Feed your honey a shrimp by hand or toss up a scampi and pasta dish to alert her senses. Best paired with a white Argentinean wine and cooked with butter and fresh herbs. Ole.

Oysters: These bi-valve muscles are packed with amino acids which are the nutrients of love. These acids can heighten the hormones that produce sexuality and thus, lovemaking. Oysters are rather sensual in nature as well, emulating a lady's clitoris as well as mimicking oral sex. These shellfish are so sensual that the original Kasanova was said to fix on them morning, noon, and night to please his lovers. Here's to you and oysters, chap!

Berries: Berries are aphrodisiacs not just in their taste but also in their shape. Mimicking the round curves of a woman (the hips, breasts, nipples, belly button, and nipples) berries are also a power punch of vitamins to the adrenal glands- which control sexual hormones! Try strawberries, blueberries, raspberries, even goji berries. Rub those berries all around your lady before letting them dangle above her mouth. It's all about playing with your food. Yum-Yum.

Chocolate: Early Mayan and Mexican cultures have feasted on the cacao bean for centuries. Its sensuous flavorings and pairings often insinuate sexuality. The cacao bean is mixed with sugar, cocoa butter, vanilla, and milk in order to concoct chocolate. Best thing about chocolate? Its many forms: bars, powder, liquid, truffles, and more! Chocolate contains tryptophan, a serotonin booster, and phenyl ethylamine which is an amphetamine that is released in the brain when humans fall in love. These two together build the love and aphrodisiac that gives chocolate its magic.

Bananas: This fruit is filled with potassium and magnesium said to give the perfect beginning to a morning workout. Need a quick bite before an early bird love-making session? Pop in a banana. Better yet, let her eat a bite, too. Nothing like watching your lady wrapping her lips over your banana. Amen.

Mango: Mango has long been known as an aphrodisiac in areas like Central and South America, as well as Asia. It's often eaten as a sign of strength and virility, but also representative of the female form. Artists like Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera used it as a metaphor in their paintings for the woman's sexual region. Supple, wet, and sweet tasting, a mango can always put someone in the mood and heighten arousal.

Ginger: This root, found in many Asian foods, can stimulate the circulatory system which for men is the best thing. Been a little stressed lately? Having the same old-same old sex? Go out for Thai or Chinese with your partner and order something with ginger in it. Before the check is ready- you'll be ready to pounce. Ginger also has an aromatic fragrance that women love. It will really get her cooking.

Cinnamon: This spice is said to produce penile function in men more than any other. Simply put, you'll find the smell arousing. Powder your lady love with a little cinnamon and sugar. Kiss her feet. Lick her buns. Massage her back. See if you're not raring to go after a little cinnamon spread. Bonus tip: try a dash of this spice every morning in your coffee. Your sex drive will increase. Do the same for her!

A Good Red Wine: Spend $50 or up on a good red with a musky, berry, or earthy tone. Wine in general is a favorite among women. Not to mention the libido benefits, which mostly come from the relaxation that wine will bring to your lover. Once the stress is out the way, women are ready to rock and roll. Wine helps to unwind!

Here's to eating up, licking down, and a true Kasanova who knows exactly what to serve. Cheers!

The Barron Concierge

WELCOME TO THE FUTURE

Mark B. Barron is the CEO and inventor of CONSUMERON, the first international model to offer the world marketplace a cutting edge of futuristic technology: a personal assistant at the touch of your fingertips, shopping and delivering anything you may need within the hour.

Mr. Barron is the Baron. He wasn't born into this role and he's no noble. He created it. He invented everything that he has with the business man model including a touch of gutsy moves. Mark B. Barron has become: A true modern man, success story and a man of achievement. In this way, he is a noble man- A True Barron. He is an entrepreneur, inventor, and futurist. Mark's newest creation, CONSUMERON, is the only business of its kind and as such,

“ “ Sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice. You won't get far in business unless you are willing to put in the work. ” ”

he patented it. Mark holds the patent for the world's only mobile tele-presence technology that will allow users to have their very own personal assistant hand deliver product orders within 60 minutes. Find out more at www.CONSUMERON.com

How did this idea and business opportunity come to Mark? He saw a need. And, he filled it. Mark notes that in this 2013 world of modern technology, we should all be able to have items at the touch of a button. He lists our options as: web ordering like Ebay, Amazon, and Google, or delivery like UPS, FedEx, PostMate or USPS. Personal assistant agencies exist- but so does high turnover. Where then, he asked, was the financially suitable model for high level CEO's to extract exactly what they need at exactly that moment- quickly, easily, and with user friendly technology?

His business mind began to work. As a world traveler, Mark believes cities like London, Paris, Los Angeles and Manhattan offer the cutting edge OF technology but not the cutting edge of meeting needs. If, for instance, a CEO could have 40 bottles of top shelf champagne delivered for his impromptu workplace party within the hour- would he? He would. The issue is now, could he?

What are his options? This CEO could drive to the nearest Costco and purchase these bottles at $37 each. Then, drive them back to “ Be smart.

Work hard.
Have balls. ”

Take risks: It's all numbers. You can't buy time but you can steal time. Do it. Make it happen. Period.”

work. Is this really suitable for a metropolitan lifestyle? Or, he could go to his local market and pay $60 each within the city. Where is the refined and suitable option for the customer meeting his needs at his level?

Mark's got it. CONSUMERON owns the patent to offer a mobile assistant, an assistant-minded person traveling in a green-energy car with video technology and smart phones allowing this CEO or customer to choose a selected product, research prices, confirm product, purchase product, and have the product delivered- all through their very own tele-mobile assistant. Like your assistant? Put him or her on your favorites list. Prefer Assistant Sebastian's choice in luxury items over Assistant Jake's? Fine. You have visual ability on all assistants available for the day and for your needs. Imagine looking at a screen of available assistants for the day and branching them out for each of your needs. Just how UBER cracked the code for limo service in New York City, CONSUMERON will be the game changer in last mile delivery and courier service in the world. Mark has created and patented a mobile shopping platform including the best technology, traveling options, and purchasing competition all through mobile visual technology for the client- INCLUDING the client in every choice. Now, a customer can have what they want, when they want it, even if they want it NOW. Saving more time, and living a life efficiently.

That's the difference between CONSUMERON and anything else out there that doesn't match up. Mark's invented a platform that caters to the e-commerce client.

This model uses existing technology and expands the platform, creating jobs and securing the mobile assistant on demand and e-commerce market.

In 10 years, Mark B. Barron will be a very popular name. Up there with the likes of Bill Gates. He's offering a luxury item to the masses at affordable rates with stellar service. Just like Bill Gates did with the Personal Computer, the "PC." Now, CONSUMERON will no doubt be the first in this line of mobile tele-presence assistant technology and products offered on the personal level.

Mark's been a CEO in the brokering, consulting, inventing, and engineering fields for the last several decades. He's business to the core. He knows the need for the CONSUMERON product because he is the client. He lives the lifestyle. Mark believes in the 21st century and is creating this e-commerce model, or remote control shopping with live video, to suit the needs of his industry- which also happens to be the future industry.

He's a bit of a maverick. Think Mark Zuckerberg meets Bill Gates meets Mick Jagger. Yes, he's that cool. Seriously. And on August 14, 2012 he cracked the code for the CONSUMERON patent, No. 8244594, detailing his "method for remote acquisition and detailing of goods." The patent drawings are insane. This guy's brilliant. Shortly, the worldwide market will be offered a personal assistant who virtually communicates using the best technology, saving money, giving a choice of product and delivering it to your doorstep. Are you ready?

The future is here.

ASK GET TO THE NITTY GRITTY - ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS EVERY MAN WANTS TO KNOW KASANOVA

DEAR KASANOVA,

I HAVE BEEN WITH MY GIRL FOR ABOUT 6 MONTHS NOW AND EVERYTHING IS PERFECT, BUT EVERYTIME WE HAVE SEX SHE SAYS THAT IT HURTS HER AND SHE DOESN'T GET ENJOYMENT BECAUSE SHE IS SO TIGHT THAT IT HURTS. WHAT CAN WE DO?

SIGNED, LOVE HURTS

Dear ,Love Hurts

There are many reasons that there could be pain when having intercourse with your lady. Firstly vaginal infections such as a yeast infection or genital herpes which often times go unnoticed, Other issues could be vaginal dryness or she could just have a case a small pussy. what ever it may be. First I would take this seriously as normal sexual intercourse should never be painful or discomforting. So to start I would try sexual lubricant, if she still hurts during intercourse. There is a vaginal dilator system that she can use and wear through out the day to slowly open. It starts with a pinky size phallus and gradually they increases insize to eventually get her to the point that she can handle your love making with out pain or discomfort and the two of you can enjoy your sexual side. But if this doesnt help I would recommend talking to a physician about the problem.

DEAR KASANOVA,
THE PAST FEW TIMES ME AND MY FIANCÉ HAVE HAD SEX, I HAVE BEEN EXPERIENCING PREMATURE EJACULATION. I'M WORRIED THAT THIS WILL KEEP HAPPING. I AM NOTICING THAT SHE IS GETTING FRUSTRATED! HOW CAN I LAST LONGER IN THE BEDROOM AND MAKE SURE MY WOMEN IS FULLY SATISFIED?

SIGNED LAST LONGER

DEAR LAST LONGER,

THERE ARE A FEW OPTIONS FOR YOU TO CONSIDER WHEN DEALING WITH PREMATURE EJACULATION (PE). THE FIRST IS REALLY SIMPLE .USE CONDOMS, THEY HELP DULL THE SENSATIONS AS YOU ARE ENTERING YOUR PARTNER IF THIS DOES NOT WORK THEN YOU CAN TRY NUMBING CREAMS AND SPRAYS WITH DESENSITIZE THE PENIS BUT THEY WILL ALSO AFFECT YOUR PARTNERS SEXUAL SENSITIVITY. YOU CAN ALSO TRY THINKING OF NON SEXUAL THOUGHTS WHILE HAVING INTERCOURSE IE, BASEBALL, SHOPPING LISTS ETC JUST FOR 5-10 SECONDS TO REST YOUR BODY'S AROUSAL. YOU MAY ALSO WANT TO USE LESS AROUSING POSITIONS TRY HER ON TOP OR A SIDE SPOONING POSITION STAY AWAY FROM MISSIONARY AND DOGGIE AS THESE PUT MORE PRESSURE ON YOUR PENIS GLANDS AND MAKE YOU WANT TO EXPLODE. IF THESE DON'T WORK IT MIGHT BE TIME TO GO SEE YOUR DOCTOR FOR HELP. THERE ARE A FEW DRUGS THAT THEY SUBSCRIBE TO HELP WITH PE. GOOD LUCK

DEAR KASANOVA,

I HAVE BEEN HANGING OUT WITH THIS AMAZING GIRL. SHE IS SMART, BEAUTIFUL AND SO MUCH FUN. THE THING IS WE HAVE NEVER HOOKED UP, TO BE HONEST I HAVEN'T EVEN KISSED HER YET. I ENJOY HANGING OUT WITH HER AND WOULD LIKE TO TAKE IT TO THE NEXT STEP. HOW DO I GET OUT OF FRIEND ZONE?

SIGNED ,FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND,

YOU HAVE LANDED IN FRIEND ZONE, WHAT YOU SHOULD DO IS TAKE A STEP BACK BE LESS AVAILABLE MAKE HER WANT TO BE WITH YOU OR WONDER WHAT YOU'RE DOING. TELL HER ABOUT OTHER WOMEN THAT WANT YOU AND YOU'RE DATING BUT SOMETHING ISN'T QUITE THERE FOR YOU. NO WOMEN WANTS A PUSH OVER SO YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE TO STEP UP AND BE A MAN. ASK HER OUT ON A REAL DATE. WHILE ON THE DATE FLIRT AND GIVE HER LITTLE GESTURES OF INTEREST LIKE SLIGHT ROMANTIC TOUCHES GO FOR HER HAND IF SHE REJECTS YOU PLAY IT OFF ETC. WHEN YOU TAKE HER HOME GO FOR A KISS AT THE DOOR IF YOU DON'T GET THE RESPONSE YOU'RE LOOKING FOR IT MIGHT BE TIME TO MOVE ON.

DEAR KASANOVA,

I HAVE BEEN SEEING THIS AMAZING WOMAN FOR A MONTH OR SO AND WE HAVE A LOT OF FUN AND THE CHEMISTRY IS THERE BUT SHE IS COSTING ME A FORTUNE. WHEN I ASK HER TO JUST COME HANGOUT AT MY PLACE FOR A MOVIE NIGHT OR TO JUST STAY IN SHE ALWAYS FINDS AN EXCUSE FOR HER NOT TO COME OVER. SHE ONLY HANGS OUT WITH ME IF IT INVOLVES A FANCY DINNER OR A NIGHT OUT AT THE CLUB WITH BOTTLE SERVICE, SHOPPING SPREE OR EXPENSIVE DINNERS, HER CHOICE. IS SHE USING ME FOR MY MONEY?

SIGNED, USER

DEAR USER,

IT SOUNDS LIKE SHE IS PLAYING YOU AND ONLY WANTS YOUR MONEY. TELL HER YOU'VE LOST YOUR JOB AND YOU HAVE NO MORE MONEY TO SPEND RIGHT NOW, BUT YOU WOULD STILL LIKE TO SEE HER AND HANGOUT. IF SHE STOPS RETURNING YOUR CALLS AND DOESN'T HAVE TIME FOR YOU, THEN YOU HAVE YOUR ANSWER.

Veneno

The background of the page features a close-up, high-angle view of the interior of a silver Lamborghini Veneno sports car. The steering wheel is prominent, featuring the Lamborghini bull logo. The dashboard and center console are visible, showing various controls and buttons. In the upper left corner, there is a circular logo with the word "LAMBORGHINI" in yellow capital letters on a black background, with a red bull silhouette below it. The overall image has a semi-transparent, artistic feel.

Revered as one of the most luxurious dream cars produced in the world, the Lamborghini has an undeniable influence in the car industry. It was founded in 1963 by Ferruccio Lamborghini and is one of the oldest vehicle manufacturers. The dream cars manufactured by Lamborghini targets those individuals who enjoy the finer tastes in life. For fanatics the desire greatly increases after looking at the complex design and magnificent interior of this luxury dream car.

Following the footsteps of the Lamborghini's previous prototypes, the Italian carmaker build a machine that is so strong yet so sexy that it's meant to fly on the road. In Geneva the company gave the world the dream car called Veneno. Named after one of the strongest and fearful bulls, the Lamborghini Veneno is one sports car that simply takes the breath away. After the unveiling of the car, it came as no surprise that Lamborghini celebrated its 50th anniversary with this beauty. Now you can see how exclusive this car is as only three are made in three different colors namely red, white and green to symbolize the Italian flag. The car is made completely out of carbon fiber and with a price tag of $3.9 million , being one of the most expensive cars in the world .The audience can't decide whether it's a dream or a nightmare. One things for sure though, the dream car definitely brings out the inner kid inside us all bursting with joy when opening Christmas presents.

When going at speeds at 350 km/h every driver wishes to have the least possible resistance the stream line shape grants that wish. It has a massive 6.5-litre V12 good for 750 horsepower and the sports car can accelerate to an outstanding speed of 100km/h within 2.8 seconds. The remarkable design of the Veneno primarily optimizes aerodynamics, including the front splitter, rear diffuser, massive rear wing and a shark-like fin running along the spine of the roof. But the most intriguing styling element is the asymmetrical shape of the wheel openings. For the rear, Lamborghini installed a substantial diffuser hiding the four sizable exhaust pipes divided by a splitter. The rear lights include a Y-shaped design, while the engine cover features six wedge-shaped openings that help cooling the V-12 monster. The sports car is fitted with two lightweight bucket seats made from Lamborghini's patented Forged Composite

The Veneno is another dream car built by Lamborghini to prove how the company can cross boundaries. Words can't encapsulate how wonderful this machine is. It definitely lives up to the likes of Gallardo, Aventador and Bentley while promising many more features. Although not many would be able to enjoy the car but we can still appreciate its elegance.

The Best Sex Toys for Men

Looking to spice up the bedroom in all the best ways? We've got you covered. Kasanova is giving you all the ins-and-outs for all the best sex toys around. Surprise your lover with new accoutrement or send her roaring with an oldie (but a goodie). Whatever your choice, this is the list for you.

Nudity: It seems all too common in sex, right? Except it's not. Often times, couples don't take the time to fully undress during the deed. Some clothes on can be sexy, but all clothes off beats sexy- it's steamy. Do a sweet strip tease for your lady love. Have killer abs? A tight tushy? She'll love the way you model it for her. The key is to slow down and tempt her. This will give her the head start that she needs to catch up with you- stallion.

Vibrating Penis Ring: These toys are insane! Grab an inexpensive set for multiple use and get to vibrating. Let her slide it over your member with her lips. When you're inside her, turn it on. A button also acts as a clitoral stimulator which helps her climax every time your thrust deeply. The vibrations will also drive you wild. While you're at it, pick up a hand full of these fun gadgets.

Handcuffs, padded or stainless steal: Is your lady naughty or nice? Buy both types of handcuffs for different nights. If she's in a naughty girl mood, offer to have her cuff you up and play dominatrix with you. If she's in a good girl mood, offer to cuff her up and play damsel in distress with her. Role play is a creative way to get the juices flowing. Cuffs are just the toy to get you dreaming with her.

Sex pillows: Try the liberator.com or littledeeper.com. These sex pillows can prop and drop your woman in all the best ways. Have you been longing to try a position she just isn't willing to do? These pillows facilitate all the best angles and depths. Plus, after you collapse from exhaustion, you have somewhere to rest your head. You might not get much sleep with this pillow by your side.

Your hand: Let's say you're on vacation. Forgot to pack the toys? Use God's gift. Your hands. Rub her legs. Massage her buttox. Tickle her breasts. These toys are free and they're with you everywhere. Get wild with it. Next time you're in a public place, pull her into a dark corner and let your hands roam. She'll love the exotic surprise. This is your most versatile toy yet!

To please their ladies with.

Dildos: Men are often intimidated by these fun toys. They come in all different shapes, sizes, and colors. Don't forget, beyond plastic, glass dildos offer the warm and cooling affects by mildly heating in the microwave or cooling in the freezer. These changes in body temperature can really help inspire your woman. Female sexual organs respond well to these changes in temperature and chances are, she'll be screaming by the end of the experience. Still sticking with the plastic model? Just gently rub it around her, massage it into her lips, and when she's ready, pulse it slowly in and out of her. Pretty soon, this tool will be your best friend. Most women will let you do things with a dildo that they'd never let you do with your own tool. Have fun macho man!

Edible underwear: What's better than eating things off of your woman's body? Pretty much nothing. Edible underwear can keep you licking and sucking all the right places. Surprise her by hiding the underwear in her garment drawers. Then suggest she go looking, like a hide-and-seek game. This will give you the opportunity to watch her undress and pull on edible yumminess. It's sweet from here on out. Crunch around her hips and lick around her nipples. Take the edible treats off and make her lick them. The ball will keep rolling from there.

Kama Sutra Kits: These babies usually come with massage oil, bath oil, water-based sexual lubricant, edible dust, and feathers. Often times a book is included to guide you through the fun positions as well as the foreplay. With position names like "The Delight," "The Surprise," and "The Hammock" you're bound to find one that works. Try kamasutra.com and ask her what position turns her on the most. Find one she's willing to try? Give her what she wants.

Here's to the best toys, for you boys, helping the girls play dirty all night. Cheers Kasanova!

The 2014 Jaguar XKR-S GT is jaguar's race car for the streets. It is a race ready version of the XK Coupe.

Jaguar developed the XKR-S GT in their ETO division, which is their in house specialty group that designs all there R badge models. The XKR-S Gt features an all-aluminum constructed body structure, using aerospace aluminum and bonding techniques ensuring superior strength and handling characteristics.

The XKR-S GT was designed purely on the laws of physics. Extensive wind tunnel testing has resulting in an extremely aerodynamically efficient shape with nothing added just for the frills of it. This in turn has given the XKR-S GT as much high-speed stability and down force as possible. Creating a pure driving machine handles as well as it looks.

This is a true supercar and one of the rarest out there. Only 30 cars are headed for the USA period. So if you like what you see you had already be on the list or your chances might be slim to none of laying your hands of one of these beauties.

When you look at the New Jaguar XKR-S GT it makes you feel as if it is going to pounce on you at any moment, it looks very strong and aggressive. It is equipped with carbon fiber aerodynamic components which include an extra front splitter, Aggressive dive-planes on the front fascia and an elevated rear wing and a rear diffuser which sports a 4 exhaust ports.

The XKR-S GT is powered by Jaguar's top of the line 5 litre V-8 engine, producing an impressively responsive 550 horsepower and 505 lb/ft of torque hurtling you to the electronically limited top speed of (300km/ph) or 186mph. All this power is transferred to the ground via six speed automatic transmission and active electronically controlled rear differential, this coupled with the aerodynamics and suspension modifications, plus revisions to traction control settings. The XKR-S GT screams to 0-60 mph times of 3.9 seconds.

Jaguar is only offering the XKR-S GT in Polaris white with black racing stripes as well as the R-S GT moniker on the hood. The interior is a warm charcoal color with red piping and stitching, the steering wheel and head liner are all suede, 16 way adjustable performance seats wearing the R-S GT moniker in the headrests. It also comes standard with gloss black 20" forged alloy wheels which are shod in Pirelli Corsa performance tires (255/35-20 and 305/30-20 front/rear), giving excellent grip and stability in all driving situations as well as a far more aggressive stance.

It is also the first production Jaguar wearing the carbon ceramic braking system. The internally cooled and cross drilled feather weight rotors measure a massive 15.7 inches in the front and 15 inches in the rear. This Jaguar really can stop on a dime.

This Jaguar is really in a class of its own, with aggressive yet refined styling and excellent performance numbers all I can say is I want one. Put your order in now and hopefully you could be one of the lucky few that will get to own this rare and powerful beast.
