PICK UP LINES THAT WORK

Ready to pick up the right lady? Cut the crap and tell her how you really feel. Honesty is the best policy. Women are naturals with intuition. They can sense a liar coming from a mile away. Use these pick up lines (that really work). Come on Gentleman, these are real-life tested pick up lines!

The key to a good pick up line is that it's NOT a line but instead an introduction. Give a line and follow it up with a question about her, or your name, anything that will lead into natural conversation. Women want to feel comfortable not confronted, keep the conversations going and you'll quickly become her Kasanova.

1. Wow, I haven't seen you in years! Looking great! (For an old acquaintance).
2. That color looks fantastic on you.(At the mall).
3. Hi, I'm _____. What's your name? I just had to come over and introduce myself.
(To a knock-out stunner who you need to talk to before she gets picked up by someone else).
4. Did you enjoy the show? I noticed you sitting alone.
Can I buy you a drink and get to know you a little? (At a movie or concert).
5. Hi Miss. I'd like to buy your coffee. Allow me? (To the cutie in front of you in Starbucks).
6. Good evening ladies. I'm _____ and these are my pals. We came over to introduce ourselves.
(When you're out with the boys, and they are out with the girls in a team situation).
7. Oh, you know So-And-So. I've known him/her for years! It's my pleasure to meet you.
(When she's a friend of a friend).

8. Man, do I love this song? (When you're in a crowded bar).
9. Please, miss, let me get this door for you. (When you're at work, and a gorgeous lady just entered the office).
10. You have a great smile. (When she does and you can't stop staring at her).
11. I love this place. Have you been here before?
(When you're waiting at your favorite restaurant for the usual take-out meal).
12. Looks like I need to get on your workout plan. Any good advice?
(When you bump into each other at the gym).
13. You should join us. I'd love to catch up with you. (When you are in a a group situation and she has the opportunity to leave, but you'd rather her stay).
14. Ski much? Would you like to take a class together? (Out on the slopes!)
15. Your eyes brought me over here. I'm _____. You have beautiful eyes. (Any situation).
16. Listen, I see you around a lot. I'd love to take you out. Are you free this week?
(When you keep bumping into her around town or at events).
17. That was wonderful. Thanks for going out with me. I'd love to drive you home so we can visit on the car ride. May I? (After a great first date, and to seal the deal for a second date, don't push sex the first night! This is the best pick-up line for a second chance date).
18. Hi, there. Can I invite you over for dinner at my place? (For your hot neighbor).
19. Do you run this track often? (When you're out for a jog).
20. Can I take you out for a dance?
(When there's a dance floor wherever you are. Women love to dance!)
21. Do you have a couple of minutes. Let's take a stroll around the block. I'd like to get to know you better. (When you know her from around).

Use honesty and compassion when you are interested in a lady. Chances are, she can tell what your motivations are from day one. Keep it honest and fair. She's a lady and deserves to be treated as such. However, you're an interested man. And deserve to approach her as such. With these time tested lines, you're guaranteed to be the Kasanova of the dating scene.

F TYPE V8 S

By: Terence Maddison

Jaguars new 2013 F type V8 s is not only beautiful and powerful it is sexy as hell, it was engineered to be a true high performance sports car. The F Type is brilliantly designed from head to toe, this car is a drivers dream constructed with light weight aluminum with extra care put towards the torsional and lateral strength to maximize the agility of this panther.

The body design is sleek and sexy with jaguars usual long front fenders and there new updated front end with the cool air ducting really make the F-Type look mean and aggressive. It also has a rather short rear over hang which lends to the fast look of the car and also helped with the weight distribution. The F Type F combines superb aerodynamics, to achieve pure sports car characteristics and a fun and spirited driver's car. The design of the F- Type V8 S will stand the test of time elegant and menacing all in the same package. The F-Type V8 S features a unique exhaust system with four outboard mounted outlets, with twin outlets on each side respectively. The F-Type V8 S also comes with 20 in wheels standard and they have a healthy dose of carbon fiber built in to them, the wheel design is very aggressive. It also receives upgraded front vanes beneath the shark grills and flat side sill extensions to Power for the V8 S comes from Jaguars newly designed all aluminum super charged 5.0 L V8 engine, producing 495 horsepower and 460 ft-lbs of torque delivered over wide torque curve of 2,500- 5,5500 rpm giving the V8 S a smooth yet powerful range of driving enjoyment. , the aluminum cylinder heads package an innovative valve control system. The dual independent variable cam timing (DIVCT) system is activated by the positive and negative torques generated by the movement of the intake and exhaust valves, allowing exceptionally quick actuation rates of more than 150 degrees per second throughout the rev range. Zero to sixty times are a brisk 4.2 seconds enough to satisfy even the most discerning car purists, with a top speed of 186 mph means you will be passing mere mortals with a few beats of your adrenaline rushing heart.

The Jaguar F-Type V8 S is fitted with an active exhaust system which controls the exhaust notes throughout the rev range. Getting all this power to the 20 in wheels and tires is an eight speed 'QUICK SHIFT' automatic transmission with all these gears to choose from you will be able to keep the F-Type in its optimum gearing for all driving situations. Remember that manual override is available to you at any time with the steering mounted paddle shifters or the center mounted shifter.

The Interior of the Jaguar F-Type V8 S is nothing short of spectacular, suede3 spoke leather wrapped steering wheel, elegantly designed center console with all the gadgets placed close to hand. Every inch of the interior is leather wrapped, which I wouldn't expect anything less from Jaguar. Button controls on the steering wheel are well placed so you don't have to lift your hands from the control surface. The digitally lighted led gauges are a nice visual touch with a bright digital navigation and control center in the middle.

The new F-Type V8 S has too many design features and new technology to list here but it is as beautiful of a sports car that I have seen it screams refinement and pure power all in one package. I wouldn't be surprised if James Bond is driving one in his next adventure on the silver screen. I would by one in a heartbeat. I always have been partial to a purring kitty.

Diary of a KASANOVA

He watched her through lowered lashes and blazing green eyes. She was young and beautiful. If looks could tell her story, he would guess that she was fairly innocent. Her hair was light cornflower blonde and she had big blue eyes the color of the ocean. Her heart shaped lips were full and pouty and he could imagine the feel of them around his cock. He smiled wickedly to no one in particular as he thought about the things he would do to her.

The girl had the figure of a Playboy Centerfold. She was delicious in every possible way. Approximately 5'6" with 110 pounds give or take, of lean, tanned muscular perfection. She had perky, round tits, not too large, but more than just a handful. He was guessing she was about a C cup from here. And damn, that ass...he could bounce a coin off it, Round and bubbly and sexy as hell.

He had a feeling that she had a delicious, tight pussy and he was certain that he would enjoy going down on her for hours. He was quite an expert in that department. Pleasuring women was his specialty, after all. He would enjoy watching her squirm beneath him as she clawed her nails into his back as he made her cum. He wondered if she would taste like peaches. He laughed out loud, she certainly looked like a sweet little Georgia Peach.

She wasn't his usual conquest, he was attracted to exotic, accomplished beauties, sophisticated women, powerful women, trophy women, so to speak, and that he could seduce and feel a sense of accomplishment after manipulating and controlling. He loved the chase. Money was no object and women always seemed to fall for his charm and allure as often as they did for his wallet and the gifts he would lavish them with. Every once in awhile he liked to play it low key and find a pretty, sweet little doll like this one. They were always so obedient and eager to please. He liked turning a regular, middle-class girl into a Princess for a night or two, it always made him feel like a Prince Charming of sorts. He'd make all of their dreams come true....until the sun came up anyway.

He was definitely looking for someone to charm tonight. He had been bored in New York and had decided, on a whim, to jump in his silver Mercedes, his "low-profile" vehicle, and take a road trip to California. He didn't need to drive cross-country, he owned several jets. It was just the lure of the freedom of it all. He wanted to be reckless and irresponsible. He had people to run his companies and make decisions in his absence, he had no need to be stuck in New York. So he'd jumped in the car on a breezy spring day and somehow had ended up in Vegas instead. He was staying in the penthouse suite, overlooking the city.

He had decided to dine at the Four Star award winning Bartolotta, enjoying Mediterranean seafood with a view of the lagoon and his own private cabana. His little peach would be his waitress for the evening, and his entertainment later. He thought she looked nice in her low-cut black velvet dress, perfect for a cocktail at the Eastside Lounge after dinner. He was in the mood for some dueling pianos this evening.

By all standards Kasanova was drop-dead gorgeous, and every woman's dream come true. He looked like a Roman God, sculpted in pure perfection. He'd learned a long time ago that money and good looks could get him anything his heart desired. Right now he didn't much care what his heart had to say, he was thinking with his cock. And all he desired was her lips around it.

As if reading his thoughts, the blonde turned towards him. Their eyes met and she blushed. Yes, she must definitely be a mind reader, reaching into his and seeing all of the dirty things he wanted to do to her. He flashed her his brilliant smile and lifted his empty glass to her. She looked embarrassed and hurried towards his table.

"I'm so sorry Sir," she began.

He waved her apology away with his hand and a toss of his head. He smiled slowly, rather enjoying the look in her eyes. Yes, this one was already under his spell. She was turning a deeper shade of red as he just stared at her. She was exquisite in her beauty, a perfectly angelic face, heart-shaped and so flawless that she looked as if she could be made of porcelain. His eyes gleamed as he wondered if he might break her.

"You'll be forgiven if you grab that bottle of Dom Pérignon and a glass for yourself and come join me."

She hesitated for a moment and glanced at the manager. He had told her to make sure Mr. Kasanova was taken care of in every possible way. She was new here and really needed the money for her tuition in the fall. She couldn't screw this up. Based on the way people scrambled around frantically for this man, she knew he must be very, very important. She thought about her morals for a moment. It was only a glass of champagne. He hadn't asked her to sleep with him, yet. She sighed slightly. If the morals were a concern, perhaps she shouldn't have come to Vegas. She smiled back at the handsome man and hurried to get the bottle. Would it be so bad, really, if she did end up in his bed she thought. He was very handsome and charming. When she returned he motioned for her to sit. She glanced at the manager again before obeying. Your name Dear? " He asked as she poured the champagne into the two glasses.

She blushed again, "Lily, Sir."

He was amused, call me Kasanova. She handed him a glass and raised her own, "A pleasure Mr. Kasanova." "Likewise, Lily," he clinked his glass to hers and drank slowly as he watched her sip cautiously.

The pretty girl closed her eyes and sighed, "Delicious," she whispered.

"Yes, indeed."

Lily, blushed a deeper shade of crimson when she realized he wasn't talking about the champagne.

"Tell me about yourself, Lily".

"Oh. Umm, I...umm," she stammered, "Well, I am 22 years old. I just moved here from Alabama."

She paused as he smiled at her.

Kasanova thought to himself, Georgia. Alabama. What's the difference? He nodded, "Go on."

"I don't know, Sir but I like this champagne," she giggled.

She was adorable. She was already tipsy. Perfect. So young, so sweet and So hopelessly naive.

He couldn't resist asking, "Do you like sex?" he felt like being a little forward to see her reaction.

The alcohol must have given her courage because she lowered her lashes and smiled up at him, "Yes. I've only done it a few times though," she admitted, "I grew up Catholic."

He said fondly, "How many times have you felt the touch of a man, Lily?"

He poured her another glass of champagne, leaving his nearly untouched.

"Three," she blushed again.

"Good. What brought you to Sin City?"

"I wanted to make a lot of money so I can afford school."

"Oh? What would you like to go to school for? Where?"

"I want to be a designer. There is an amazing fashion school in San Francisco that I've fancied since I was a kid. My parents can't help much."

"Well, my dear, perhaps I can help," Kasanova flashed his seductive eyes and was pleased that she didn't look away or blush again. She was gaining confidence with the second glass.

"I appreciate that but I couldn't possibly ask for your help, Kasanova"

"You're not asking. I'm offering. I'll see what I can do. I'm not as hungry as I thought I was, I would rather order dessert for later and take you away. So, doll, will you join me?" he asked the question but Lily knew it was just a courtesy. They both knew she didn't have a choice. He'd already dangled the carrot of opportunity in her face and for a little country gal, it was an opportunity of a lifetime.

She was attracted to him. He was kind. She was in Vegas for goodness sake. Why not join this handsome, rich man for the evening.

She nodded and then sighed, "Oh, but I'm working until midnight."

"Not anymore you aren't. Let's go enjoy the lounge, have you heard the pianists at Eastside?"

She shook her head.

Kasanova stood up and reached for her hand. She stumbled slightly and laughed at herself. She was stunning. He loved her laugh, it was musical. Kasanova nodded in the direction of the manager who bowed slightly.

He handed Lily a small stack of hundred dollar bills and left several on the table.

"Oh no, I couldn't," she stammered, "This is too much. I didn't even do anything!"

"I insist. You deserve it. Vegas is a tough city for a Southern Belle, Save it for a rainy day, darling. Come. Let's enjoy the night." He dismissed the money as if it meant absolutely nothing to him. It really didn't. Kasanova was in the business of helping people. Especially pretty young women.

They never made it to watch the dueling pianos at the Eastside Lounge. Once the elevator doors closed behind them, Kasanova stopped the elevator and pulled the young beauty into his arms. She wrapped her arms around his neck and melted into him. He kissed her hard and passionately, backing her into the corner of the elevator and trapping her into submission. Not that she needed to be trapped, by now she was more than eager to experience all that he would soon show her. Kasanova released the elevator and kissed her all the way to the penthouse suite, running his hands along her back, caressing her perfect ass and squeezing it beneath his palms. Her kisses were sweet, tasted like strawberries and cinnamon. He felt himself harden as she shifted and her breasts pressed closer into his chest. Arm around her waist, he crushed her against him as he kisses became more feverish and intense. She reached down, timidly and let her fingers trace the outline of his cock against his pants. She pulled away from him to look into his eyes. She looked as if she could be searching for approval, a bit unsure of what to do next. When the doors opened he lifted her like a sack of potatoes, tossing her over his shoulder as he opened the door to his suite. He took five long strides to the bedroom, kicked the door open with his boot and threw her down gently on the bed.

He lifted her dress up over her head and yanked her panties down in one swift movement.

Kasanova paused for just a brief moment as the moonlight poured in through the blinds, the sinful city of Las Vegas glittering in the background. The light was cascading over her body and he stared at her milky white perfection, her full, perky tits and smooth thighs before he removed his own clothing with lightening speed. He positioned himself above her, still watching her. She had a combined look of fear, anticipation and awe as she watched him back. She arched her body up to him slightly. He was debating whether to take her now and make her cum, then go down on her and taste their juices on her sweet pussy, or to take his time with her and make her beg. Something in her eyes stirred a feeling deep inside of him, he couldn't quite place it, but he knew that he needed to be inside of her as soon as possible.

Before he could put much more thought into it she surprised him by reaching for him, her arms around his neck, pulling his lips to hers. She kissed him tenderly. This girl was so innocent, Kasanova ran his fingers through her hair, caressing her soft skin with his fingers, tracing her lips with his tongue. As she kissed him, completely relaxed and filled with adoration, he guided his long, thick, hard cock into her. Her body stiffened as she moaned. Surprise fluttered over her face for a moment. He was gentle, as much as he wanted to simply ravish her. Her wetness turned him on even more as he moved deeper inside of her.

Her hips lifted so he could fill her completely and she wrapped her legs around his neck. He thrust deep inside of her and she cried out, digging her nails into his back. She was so incredibly wet. Kasanova sighed, she was juicy as a peach, alright, and probably tasted just as good as one. He moved against her, feeling her now, enjoying her nails as she ran them up his shoulders and clung to him, crying out softly with each thrust.

"Oh God," she whispered, "if you keep that up I'm going to cum."

"Good girl," he whispered back as he penetrated hard inside of her, picking up the pace, making her pant and moan louder. Her body began to tremble and shake, her hips arched and she let out a long cry as she exploded all over his cock. She reached up to kiss him again and then flipped her over so she was on top of him. He moved her hips against him, grinding his cock, his hands on her waist, guiding her. She rode him hard. Just as he was going to cum he pulled out of her and repositioned her so that he could slide his cock in and out of her mouth. She sucked him hard and fast, exactly what he needed. Her tongue was warm and wet, ticking his balls and caressing his shank. She pulled him into the back of her throat and as he choked her slightly, he came in her mouth, warm, salty cum flowing down her throat. She swallowed every drop, looking up at him with those big blue eyes and then kissed the tip of his cock before crawling back up into his arms.

She was a sweet little Southern girl. As he watched her sleep, Kasanova was thrilled to have met her. She hadn't been as inexperienced or innocent as he had expected but she was a great gal. As she slept, he quickly dressed. Time to go. He kissed her on the forehead, leaving his business card on the pillow with a note on the back instructing her to call about school so he could help her get into her classes.

With one more glance at the sweet little Southern Belle, he was off just as the sun began to rise. Time to hit L.A. and discover the next new treasure.

The McLaren P1 was designed with pure driver feel and sensations in mind; the P1 has the most down force of any road going car as well as their own McLaren 12c GT3 racer. The goal was to generate high levels of down force at all speeds, giving the P1 unquestionable handling and agility. Driver has unparalleled feel and control of the vehicle like never before all this adding to the pure enjoyment of this super car.

There is no mistaking the good looks of the McLaren P1 it's the super model in the room you can't take your eyes off. Everybody panel, air intake, and air exhaust was designed to guide in air from the most efficient places and to maximize cooling. The McLaren P1 has an automatically adjustable rear wing with a range of 300mm for track and 120mm for the road. It also has two flaps in the front that are also automatic. The more air you can get over the car and to the rear wing the more down force and better handling the car will be and the McLaren doesn't disappoint. It also comes equipped with a drag reduction system (DRS) allowing for faster speeds on straight a ways.

The McLaren P1 is a mid engine super car that uses a carbon fiber monocoque called a monocoque. This was developed from their monocoque from the 12c and 12c spider models. The P1 is going to be light and powerful. Engine and transmission options are still to be announced, I am sure they will be upped from the Mp4 C12's 600 horse power .

The McLaren P1's is going to shock the world when the final production versions hit the market sometime later this year. We will keep you updated on this beauty and beast.

GET TO THE NITTY GRITTY - ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS EVERY MAN WANTS TO KNOW

DEAR KASANOVA,

I'M A NICE GUY AND I CAN'T SEEM TO GET A WOMEN INTRESTED IN DATING ME.I ALWAYS SEE THE WOMEN I WANT TO BE WITH GO FOR THE ASSHOLES, THAT DON'T TREAT THEM WELL. WHATS GOING ON HERE! HELP

Dear Nice GUY,

I bet you were told by your mother growing up that you should always respect women, hold the door open for them always tell them their beautiful and treat them like princesses. Will that's all fine and good but it's not going to get you laid. Women want a little bit of a challenge if you're always nice and do everything for them treating them like little princesses then you will quickly fall into nice guy territory and that is friend zone. This means the end of any chance you have to helping them drop their panties.

Women are attracted to the alpha male, they want a man's man, now I'm not saying you can't be a man's man if you don't treat women like sub class citizens, but I am saying you should be challenge they don't want to date a wimpy push over, tell them what's on your mind, treat them like their one of the guys and their perception of you will change, only treat women like princesses if they have eamed it from you.

DEAR KASANOVA,

I'M A DESCENT LOOKING GUY WITH A LOT OF THINGS GOING FOR ME, I WANT TO KNOW HOW TO APPROACH THE SEEMINGLY IMPOSSIBLE GIRLS LIKE BARTENDERS, HOOTERS GIRLS AND STRIPPERS?

Dear impossible,

Remember that these girls get hit on all the time and in most cases it is there job to make you feel that they like you. I would suggest being the most fun outgoing you as possible, don't give them cheesy lines you've read in other magazines. So some genuine interest in them as a person not for what they're wearing or what they look like. Be genuine and confident with a little attitude and you will do just fine.

Dear Kasanova,

I have been with my girl for a while now and we seem to have lost that sexual spark that was great in the begging of the relationship. I don't get what's going on? HELP!

Dear Lost Spark,

There are multiple things you can do to spice up your love life here is just a few to try, I would suggest at least once a week set aside a date day, were it is just a day for you to reconnect. Most people get caught up in the daily grind that they do not notice that they are falling apart. That's when your sexual relationship suffers. That's why date night is so important to creating that spark; Go on a weekend vacation to a cabin where there is no TV or cell reception. Spend quality time and share your feelings. Give each other love coupons make a romantic dinner together with where you both will be the dessert. This is not so much about having great sex like before but rebuilding the connection you had in the begging, If you do this the sex will be better than before.

DEAR KASANOVA,

HOW DO I GET MY GIRLFRIEND TO TRY A THREESOME TO SPICE UP OUR LOVE LIFE, IT'S BEEN A HUGE FANTASY FOR ME AND I'M NOT QUITE SURE HOW TO LET HER KNOW ABOUT THIS AND SEE IF SHE MIGHT BE INTO IT?

Dear Threesome,

This is a question that comes up regularly and fortunately for you it happens regularly too. You can try and watch 3 some porn and give little hints at your lady, tell her how much it turns you on, ask her if she has ever fantasized about being with a women etc. See how she responds to your little suggestions. If she says yeah it makes her hot or she gets turned on by your suggestions, take your suggestions a little further ask her if she would ever consider a threesome and what might her rules be if you did. If she says no it doesn't turn her on and doesn't get interested then you might have to leave it a fantasy, but if she says she would try it then you're one of the lucky ones that has a secure mature women. Remember above all you have to reassure your women that she is the most important and you love her and only her. Most men make the mistake when there women agrees to it and it happens, they tend to give all the attention to the new playmate and ignore their loved one. This can destroy the loving relationship you have worked so hard to nurture. You should treat the new partner as a toy for both of you focus on your women and have the other women as an ancillary to your fun. Don't go for penetration unless you get permission from your women. Make sure your women feels that she is the most important person in the room and you will probably get to do it again. The flip side is she might want to do a 3 some with another man so be prepared for that.

11 TECHNIQUES FOR REACHING ECSTASY WITH YOUR PARTNER

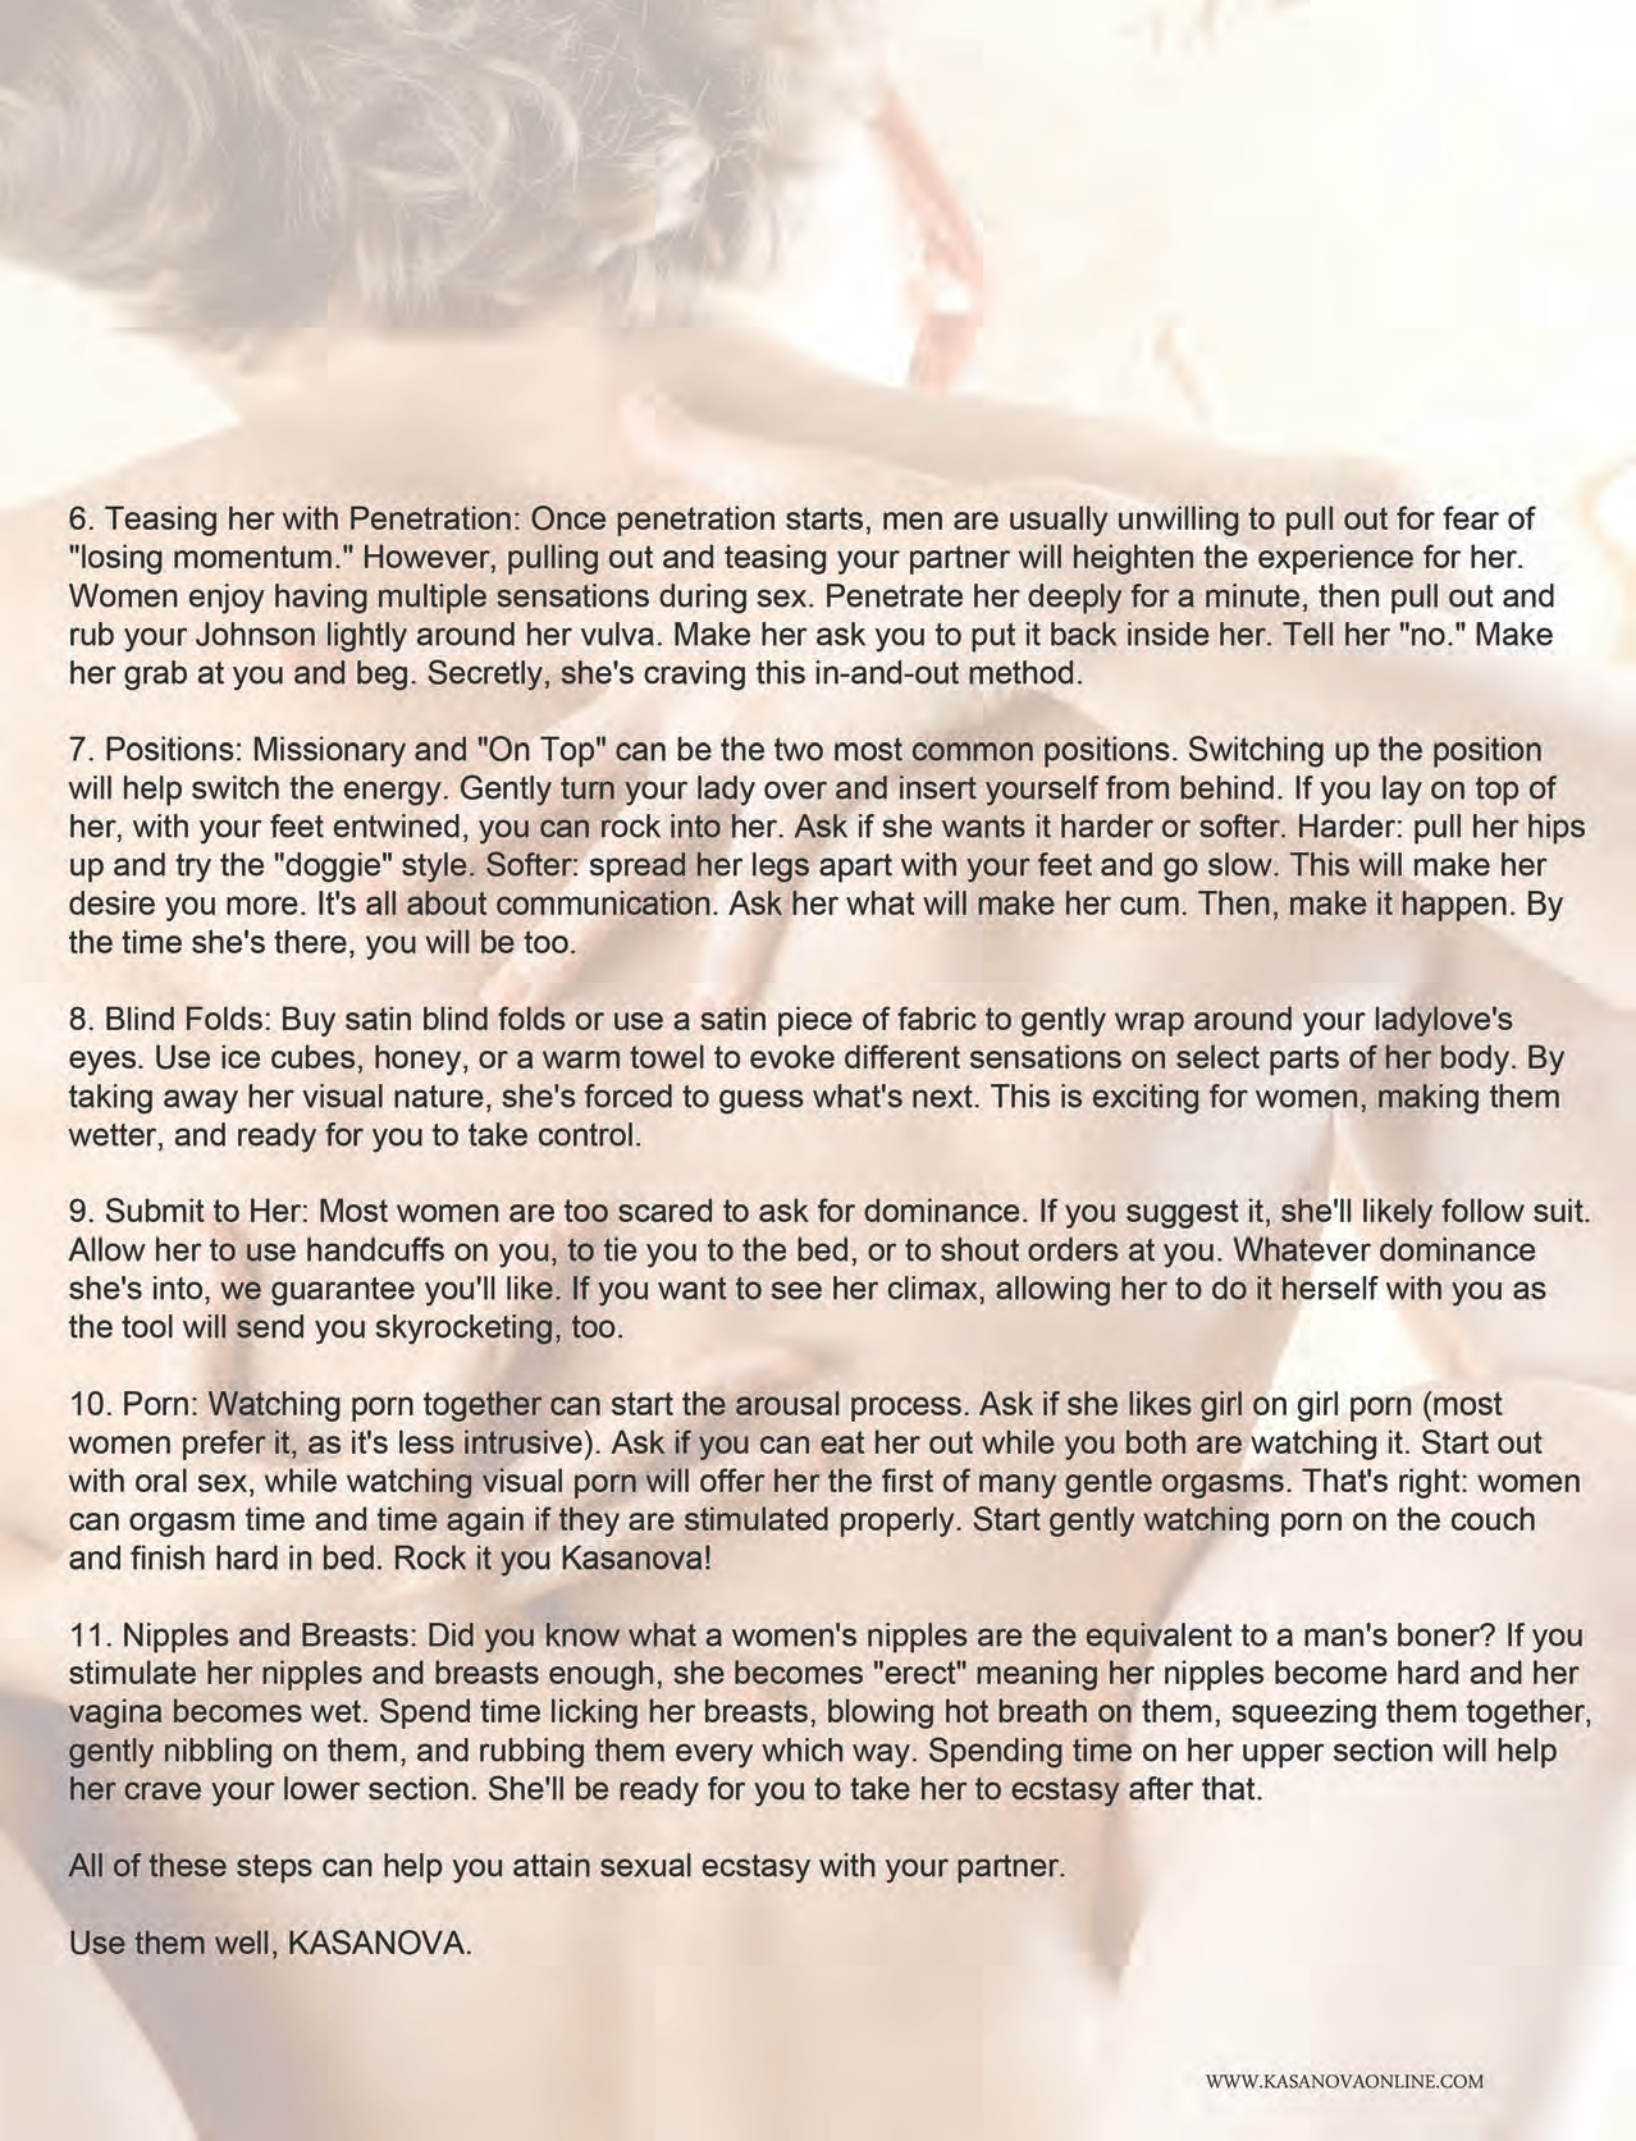

By: Chelsea Taylor

Finding ecstasy for you and your partner can be a mysterious and elusive matter. Take these tips from the pro's to guide you and your lady through an easy and pleasurable orgasm (for both parties!)...try all these techniques for a night full of orgasms, for her too!

Sex is about the exchange of energy and balance between a male and female. Allow your partner to communicate her needs and most important, her desires. Mentally, this will prepare her to orgasm with you again and again. Try this:

1. Oral Sex: Most women can't climax by simply using one technique. This is where oral sex comes in as "The backup" trick. Start with it. End with it. Slip it in the middle. Who's to say you can't get creative with your oral sex. They say the "69" fell out of fashion in 1969. Those are the people who don't get laid and are jealous. Try oral sex that turns you on. Ask your partner which type turns her on. Chances are, you'll get a little reciprocation if you start it. Show her yours and she'll show you hers.
2. Digital Sex: No, we don't mean I Phones. Leave your digital devices out of the room, gentlemen. Use your hands and fingers (your digits). Women love to be touched, everywhere. Start with her feet. Rub them. Glide up her legs tease her don't immediately go to her essence, grab her waist. Massage her back; hold her neck use your hand and fingers to roam her body. It will get her all kinds of hot-and-bothered, and ready to climax.
3. Mouth and Tongue: Using your mouth and tongue beyond oral sex will heighten her senses. Lick her legs. Suck the area behind her knees. Tongue her belly button. Gently gnaw on her hip bones. Turn her over and make out with her back. Worshiping every area of her before sex will prepare her to make the finish worthwhile. These behaviors help women "warm-up."
4. Oils: Massage oils can be an olfactory way of beginning sex. Many oils are scented with rose, lavender, even spearmint to awaken hormones in women. Buy your favorite type, or better yet, ask your partner which smells she prefers. Hint: Check the labels of her body lotions, these are the scents she's most likely to love considering she uses them daily. When the time comes, set the mood with candles and low lighting. Pour a small amount of massage oil into your hands and start with her back, legs, or stomach. Massaging slightly harder into her hips, shoulders, and rear-end will let her know you're rearing and ready to roll...
5. Fantasy: Ask your woman what her fantasy is? Does she like S&M? Does she crave a business man in a suit? What about a school-girl uniform or a naughty nurse? Women enjoy being the desire as much as men enjoy desiring about them. Ask your partner what fantasies will get her the most "wet" and make them come true. For costume fantasies, check her dress size in the closet and purchase her whatever outfit will fulfill her dreams. She'll be dreaming and you'll be the subject. Playing her way will lead to you both coming.

6. Teasing her with Penetration: Once penetration starts, men are usually unwilling to pull out for fear of "losing momentum." However, pulling out and teasing your partner will heighten the experience for her. Women enjoy having multiple sensations during sex. Penetrate her deeply for a minute, then pull out and rub your Johnson lightly around her vulva. Make her ask you to put it back inside her. Tell her "no." Make her grab at you and beg. Secretly, she's craving this in-and-out method.

7. Positions: Missionary and "On Top" can be the two most common positions. Switching up the position will help switch the energy. Gently turn your lady over and insert yourself from behind. If you lay on top of her, with your feet entwined, you can rock into her. Ask if she wants it harder or softer. Harder: pull her hips up and try the "doggie" style. Softer: spread her legs apart with your feet and go slow. This will make her desire you more. It's all about communication. Ask her what will make her cum. Then, make it happen. By the time she's there, you will be too.

8. Blind Folds: Buy satin blind folds or use a satin piece of fabric to gently wrap around your ladylove's eyes. Use ice cubes, honey, or a warm towel to evoke different sensations on select parts of her body. By taking away her visual nature, she's forced to guess what's next. This is exciting for women, making them wetter, and ready for you to take control.

9. Submit to Her: Most women are too scared to ask for dominance. If you suggest it, she'll likely follow suit. Allow her to use handcuffs on you, to tie you to the bed, or to shout orders at you. Whatever dominance she's into, we guarantee you'll like. If you want to see her climax, allowing her to do it herself with you as the tool will send you skyrocketing, too.

10. Porn: Watching porn together can start the arousal process. Ask if she likes girl on girl porn (most women prefer it, as it's less intrusive). Ask if you can eat her out while you both are watching it. Start out with oral sex, while watching visual porn will offer her the first of many gentle orgasms. That's right: women can orgasm time and time again if they are stimulated properly. Start gently watching porn on the couch and finish hard in bed. Rock it you Kasanova!

11. Nipples and Breasts: Did you know what a women's nipples are the equivalent to a man's boner? If you stimulate her nipples and breasts enough, she becomes "erect" meaning her nipples become hard and her vagina becomes wet. Spend time licking her breasts, blowing hot breath on them, squeezing them together, gently nibbling on them, and rubbing them every which way. Spending time on her upper section will help her crave your lower section. She'll be ready for you to take her to ecstasy after that.

All of these steps can help you attain sexual ecstasy with your partner.

Use them well, KASANOVA.
